WHY LA VERNE?
A National, Comprehensive Top-Ranked University

The University of La Verne, founded in 1891 and located near the eastern edge of Los Angeles County, delivers undergraduate and graduate degree programs to approximately 8,500 traditional age and adult students in La Verne, regional campuses, and multiple satellite locations. The University degree programs represent over 80 majors and numerous professions. Bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral degree programs are also offered statewide. La Verne’s programs are highly recognized, and are sought after by major corporations, hospitals, government agencies, and school districts throughout California.

1. Outstanding, nationally ranked, fully accredited non-profit University. Your employees will receive an excellent education from a well-respected and regionally-accredited private University. A degree from the University of La Verne is a degree your employees will benefit from, both personally and professionally, adding value to your organization.

2. A University of educational professionals. We are fully prepared to collaborate with your management, training, and human resources staff to achieve your company’s education, training, and development objectives.

3. Corporate partnership leader since 1968. For over 40 years, La Verne has partnered with over 100 significant organizations throughout California, improving workforce efficiency and effectiveness, directly related to positive organizational development.

4. Network of professionals. With over 50,000 alumni, La Verne offers outstanding networking opportunities with students in business, government, and education organizations. The College of Business and Public Management is one of the largest in the region, delivering the largest MBA program by a non-profit university in the Inland Empire, and the fourth largest in Los Angeles County after USC, UCLA, and Pepperdine.¹ Over 5,000 local professionals have earned a La Verne MBA.

5. Meaningful learning environment. Our experienced faculty with a unique mix of industry and classroom expertise is determined to help students succeed. Small classes ensure personal attention, effective networking, and a high level of interaction among students and faculty.

6. Student support services. A professional academic advisor is assigned to each and every student, with one-on-one advising at the class site, by phone, or online.

7. Flexibility. Students enroll in one or two courses per term. Evening classes take place one night per week for ten weeks, with weekend class schedules available. Courses are offered on-site at your company, at regional campuses throughout California (with over 30 satellite class locations), in a hybrid platform (blending online and on campus instruction), or online.

8. Library for life. Through La Verne’s Virtual Library, students have access to electronic library databases, with over four million full-text articles online. Tutorial and research help is available in person, by phone, and online. One of the University’s core values is to promote lifelong learning. To support this, La Verne alumni have access to many of the library’s services for life.
WHAT IS A CORPORATE EDUCATION PARTNERSHIP?

Throughout California, the University of La Verne has partnered with over 100 corporations, utilities, government agencies, healthcare organizations, and community colleges with degree programs that strengthen the development of both the company and the employee.

Features and Benefits of a University of La Verne Corporate/Public Sector Partnership

1. No additional work load for your administrative staff;
   La Verne administers the program in its entirety. We take care of it all—from providing your employee with degree information to classroom instruction, from student advising to program management and flexible billing options, La Verne commits to providing a comprehensive, simple, yet effective program delivery.

2. Discounted tuition rates for partners are available, providing real savings to you and your employees.

3. Relevant programs are designed to meet the need of both the organization and the working professional — skill-enhancing degree delivery closes educational gaps with flexibility and speed.

4. Degree programs offer increased employee retention and satisfaction: a systematic approach to workforce education and career enhancement increases productivity and hones your competitive edge.

5. Many class projects address existing workplace challenges; applied real world situations help develop realistic solutions for your organization.

6. Your choice of three degree levels: Bachelor’s, Master’s, or Doctoral degree programs in business, public administration, healthcare management, or organizational leadership.

7. Time convenient courses are offered either on-site in a company conference room, at nearby regional campuses, or online. All courses feature our accelerated, 10 week terms meeting one night per week, designed for working professionals.

8. Streamlined payment processes, such as direct billing, save both the company and the employee time and money.

9. Measuring learning outcomes can be instituted by mutual agreement (i.e., job performance, behavioral change studies), and may be researched by the University.
