- Only the exams listed on the chart above will be accepted for transfer. Students wishing to take a DSST exam will earn credit based on the American Council on Education's (ACE) recommendation and is independent upon which version of the exam was taken.

- Students admitted Fall 2013 and forward may transfer a maximum of 88 semester hours. If a student wishes to fulfill GE or major requirements through DSST exams, after having already met or reached the 88 semester hour limit, s/he may transfer the exam for subject area fulfillment, but will not be awarded additional semester hour credit. The particular exam will be fulfilled by a 0-unit course marker.

- The Office of the Registrar will award up to a combined maximum of 44 semester hours of credit earned through DSST exams.
