- *Course can fulfill either Humanities OR Creative Expression general education requirement. In order to make this determination, the course description MUST be reviewed along with the course syllabus, if available. Courses focused on the theory of a particular subject will earn Humanities (LVHU) credit. Courses focused on the 'act of doing' will earn credit towards Creative Expression.
- Course can fulfill either Humanities OR Foreign Language (if required by major) general education requirement. Foreign language courses must be at the second semester level or higher. First semester foreign language courses will not fulfill this requirement.

- +The requirements 8A and 8B identify courses which, when taken in sequence, satisfy the 1B requirement.
