PROOF OF HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION

You are required to complete this form because the Department of Education requires University of La Verne to confirm this information to complete your application for financial aid.

You must submit documentation of your high school completion or an equivalent with this worksheet.

Check one of the boxes below to indicate the type of documentation you will be submitting with this worksheet:

- A copy of your high school diploma.
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when your diploma was awarded.
I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office.
- A copy of the your General Educational Development (GED) certificate, or an official GED transcript that indicates you passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate.
- If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the “secondary school leaving certificate” or other similar document.
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office
- If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential.
- If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed along with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office.
