NET WORTH INVESTMENTS

Investments also include qualified educational benefits or education savings accounts (e.g., Coverdell savings accounts, 529 college savings plans and the refund value of 529 prepaid tuition plans). For a student who does not report parental information, the accounts owned by the student (and/or the student’s spouse) are reported as student investments. For a student who must report parental information, the accounts are reported as parental investments, including all accounts owned by the student and all accounts owned by the parents for any member of the household.

To find the net worth subtract the debt from the value of the investment as of the FAFSA filing date. Do not include the value of life insurance, retirement plans (401(k), pensions, annuities, non-education IRAs, Keogh plans, etc.)
