University of La Verne

2021-2022 Verification of High School Completion

Office of Financial Aid | 1950 Third Street | La Verne, CA 91750 | Phone: (800) 649-0160 | Fax: (909) 448-1629

passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate. If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leavin certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school complete credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a	Last Name		First Name	La Verne ID Number
You must submit documentation of your high school completion or an equivalent with this worksheet. Check one of the boxes below to indicate the type of documentation you will be submitting with this worksheet: A copy of your high school diploma. A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when your diploma was awarded. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office. A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate, or an official GED transcript that indicates passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate. If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leavin certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school complet credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of tha credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school compalong with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a	PROOF (OF HIGH SCHOOL COMPL	ETION
Check one of the boxes below to indicate the type of documentation you will be submitting with this worksheet: A copy of your high school diploma. A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when your diploma was awarded. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office. A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate, or an official GED transcript that indicates passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate. If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leavin certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school cordential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you compalong with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial and office.			ise the Department of Education requires Uni	versity of La Verne to confirm this information to
A copy of your high school diploma. A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when your diploma was awarded. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office. A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate, or an official GED transcript that indicates passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate. If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leavin certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school complet credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of tha credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you compalong with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial and secondary school courses you compare the financial and financial and secondary school courses you compared that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or rep	You must	submit documentation of your	high school completion or an equivalent	t with this worksheet.
A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when your diploma was awarded. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office. A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate, or an official GED transcript that indicates passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate. If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leavin certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school complecredential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you comp along with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial and understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial and understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction	Che	eck one of the boxes below to ind	icate the type of documentation you will be	e submitting with this worksheet:
□ I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office. □ A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate, or an official GED transcript that indicates passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate. □ If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leavin certificate" or other similar document. □ An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. □ I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office □ If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school complet credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential. □ If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you comp along with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a		A copy of your high school d	iploma.
A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate, or an official GED transcript that indicates passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate. If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leavin certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school complectoredential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you compalong with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE		A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when your diploma was awarded.
passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate. If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leavin certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school complected credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you compalong with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE		☐ I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office.
certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school completoredential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you compalong with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a		A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate, or an official GED transcript that indicates you passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate.
credit toward a bachelor's degree. I have already submitted this to the Admissions Office If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school comple credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you comp along with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a		If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, provide a copy of the "secondary school leaving certificate" or other similar document.
☐ If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law required you to obtain a secondary school completed credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential. ☐ If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you comp along with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a		An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that credential. If you were homeschooled and lived in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you comp along with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a		☐ I have already subm	itted this to the Admissions Office completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you comp along with a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a		credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a copy of that
CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a		completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), provide a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed
By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my know understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a	If y	you are unable to obtain the d	ocumentation listed above, you must c	ontact the financial aid office.
understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial a	CERTIFI	CATION AND SIGNATURE
	By signing to understand the	his form, I affirm that all informa nat any false statements or misrepr	tion on this form and any attachments are c esentation may be cause for denial, reduction	n, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial aid, and I
		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,		