

Interdisciplinary Perspective

Rubric

For

Test Questions and Papers

Excellent - 4

- Identifies clearly the perspectives of two disciplines.
- Identifies clearly the contribution of one discipline to the other in dealing with the issue.
- Recognizes the complexity of the factors involved in dealing with the issue.
- Makes specific action recommendations for solutions that are multifaceted and interdisciplinary.

Good - 3

- Identifies perspectives of two disciplines.
- Identifies the contribution of one discipline to the other in dealing with the issue.
- Recognizes the complexity of the factors involved but addresses them superficially.
- Makes general action recommendations for solutions that are multifaceted and interdisciplinary.

Fair - 2

- Identifies the two perspectives in a limited way.
- Identifies the contribution of one discipline to the other in dealing with the issue in a limited way.
- Recognizes some factors but fails to identify the complexity of factors involved.
- Makes general recommendations for solutions that are not multifaceted or interdisciplinary.

Poor - 1

- Identifies only one disciplinary perspective.
- Identifies the contribution of only one discipline in dealing with the issue.
- Recognizes primarily one factor involved in dealing with the issue.
- Makes vague recommendations for solutions that are not multifaceted or interdisciplinary.