

12/9/2005

UNIVERSITY OF LA VERNE
EVALUATION of
Senior Project Presentations

Rating Scale

Exemplary: Highest possible level of competence demonstrated by the student.

Satisfactory: Acceptable level of competence demonstrated by the student with some room for improvement.

Adequate: Minimally acceptable level of competence with much room for improvement.

Inadequate: Unacceptable level of competence demonstrated by the student.

Name _____

Semester _____ Department _____ Major _____

Competency		Rating Scale
		Exemplary	Satisfactory	Adequate	Inadequate
Effective presentation
1. Spoke in a clear and confident voice	n/a	4	3	2	1
2. Made individually directed eye contact with the audience	n/a	4	3	2	1
3. Audio-visual materials, tables or graphs were well designed	n/a	4	3	2	1
4. Used audio-visual material effectively	n/a	4	3	2	1
5. Paced presentation to the allotted time	n/a	4	3	2	1
6. Used well organized notes	n/a	4	3	2	1
7. Responded to questions professionally and to the point	n/a	4	3	2	1
Comments _____
Integration of Theory, Research, and Application
8. Referred to relevant theory	n/a	4	3	2	1
9. Presented own methodology and analysis with proper detail and clarity	n/a	4	3	2	1
10. Identified relevant application of findings (Conclusions)	n/a	4	3	2	1
11. Related findings (Conclusions) to theory	n/a	4	3	2	1
12. Related findings to prior research and/or the literature	n/a	4	3	2	1
13. Expressed reservations and acknowledged limitations	n/a	4	3	2	1
Comments _____

