

Syllabus Draft

HARDSHIP: Hardship experiences such as housing or food insecurity, serious medical and mental health concerns, and significant familial distress can directly affect a student's ability to be present and committed to their educational endeavors. Students experiencing hardship may benefit from connection with the following campus resources to support their success.

STUDENT RESOURCES:

- Leo Food Pantry – Provides monthly food boxes for students at the University of La Verne in need of food assistance. To request a box go to: <https://laverne.edu/chaplain/student-food-pantry/student-food-bank/>
- Social Justice Reporting Form – This form is available to any community member wishing to report an incident of social injustice or discrimination. The form is available at: https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?UnivofLaVerne&layout_id=25
- Counseling and Psychological Services – To access a range of counseling services available at the University visit: <https://laverne.edu/counseling/>
- Student Health Services – To access medical services available at the University visit: <https://laverne.edu/health/>
- Academic Success Center – To access academic support services, including writing support and tutoring, available at the University visit: <https://laverne.edu/asc/>
- Student Outreach and Support – Provides referral and support services to students. The purpose of this program is to assist students in developing strategies to overcome and address barriers that prevent them from achieving their educational goals. You may set up an appointment by sending an email to acamacho@laverne.edu or calling 909-448-4520.
- Accessibility Services – It is the policy of the University of La Verne to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal law, state law and the University's commitment to equal educational access. Any student with a disability who needs accommodations should schedule an appointment by sending an email to lbarrera@laverne.edu or calling 909-448-4938.
- Title IX – The University of La Verne is committed to providing a learning, working and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect and is free of all forms of sex discrimination and gender-based violence, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, gender-based harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. If you or someone you know is experiencing any of these, the University has staff and resources on your campus to support and assist you. For more information, contact the Title IX Coordinator at avicroy@laverne.edu or by calling 909-448-4012.

Additionally, as members of the Leo community, we each share a personal responsibility to express concern for one another and to ensure that classrooms and the campus as a whole remains a healthy and safe environment for learning. Occasionally, you may come across a fellow classmate whose personal behavior concerns or worries you, either for the classmates' well-being or yours. When this is the case, you are encouraged to share this behavior with the CARE Network:

https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?UnivofLaVerne&layout_id=15
https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?UnivofLaVerne&layout_id=15