

OFFICE OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Policies and Procedures Manual

4.5. Technology Ownership and Use Policy

4.5.1. Purpose

- 4.5.1.1. To specify ownership of technologies purchased by the University of La Verne.

4.5.2. Policy

- 4.5.2.1. Regardless of the source of funding for the purchase of technologies, all hardware and software purchased or obtained by the University through departmental budgets, grants, donations, or other University-related activities are the property of the University of La Verne and may not be appropriated for personal use or kept after separation from employment or end of grant.
- 4.5.2.2. All University technologies are provided to assist employees in the performance of their jobs and should only be used to conduct official University business.
- 4.5.2.3. Personal devices must not be used to conduct official University business by staff, unless prior written approval has been obtained by the employee's manager from the Office of Information Technology. Should this exception be granted, a regular and sustained audit of this technology will be conducted per section 4.5.2.7.
- 4.5.2.4. Upon termination of employment, all mobile (non-work area) University technologies in the terminating employee's possession, regardless of how that technology was obtained, must be physically returned to the Office of Human Resources, who will forward to the Office of Information Technology (OIT).
- 4.5.2.5. Department managers/chairs are responsible for ensuring any office technologies assigned to an individual for use in their work area (desktops, printers, faxes, etc.) remain in the office for reallocation when a person leaves the employ of the University. These technologies may not be removed and reassigned to other personnel or areas without prior written Office of Information Technology approval.
- 4.5.2.6. All technology (e.g. computers, laptops, cell phones, iPads, printers etc.) assigned to an individual may not be removed from the office or department or reassigned to another individual without prior express written authorization from the Office of Information Technology.
- 4.5.2.7. All technologies are subject to both physical and electronic audits of hardware and software for inventory control, software licensing, and information security purposes. Failure to comply or in any way attempt to defeat or disable the audit process will result in the immediate removal of access for this device to any University related resources and may result in disciplinary action.

4.5.2.7.1. All technologies are subject to these audits and individuals may not prevent the audits from being conducted.

4.5.2.7.2. Individuals assigned portable technologies such as laptop computers, cell phones, and personal communication devices (e.g. iPads), will bring the items to campus for audit purposes when requested to do so by the Office of Information Technology. Failure to comply with such a request can result in said technologies being returned to the University for permanent reassignment and may result in disciplinary action.

4.5.3. Procedure

4.5.3.1. Employees who are leaving the employ of the University of La Verne must return any mobile University-owned technology (laptops, cell phones, iPads, printers, data projectors, etc.) in their possession to the Office of Human Resources on or before their last day of employment.

4.5.3.2. It is the responsibility of the employee and the Office of Human Resources to ensure this occurs.

4.5.3.3. Should employee not return the equipment, the matter will be turned over to the Office of General Council for remedy.

4.5.4. Enforcement

4.5.4.1. Employee violations of any part of this policy will result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

4.5.4.2. Student employee violations of any part of this policy will result in disciplinary action up to and including suspension or expulsion.

4.5.4.3. The provision of University technologies is a privilege granted to individuals to perform their University duties. Misuse of these technologies could result in the loss of this privilege and therefore the inability to perform one's job.
